

The Terra Nova held up in the pack, December 13th 1910
Ref.12

The Terra Nova held up in the pack, December 13th 1910
Ref.13

The Terra Nova held up in the pack, December 13th 1910
Ref.18

The warning daaylight sun over the Barne Glacier, Midday, March 26th 1911
Ref. A35

In the ice pack from the maintop of the Terra Nova (Gran, Taylor and Wright), December 22nd 1910
Ref.42

Captain Oates and some of the ponies
Ref.45

Grotto in berg, Terra Nova in distance. Taylor and Wright (interior), January 5th 1911
Ref.88

Beautiful broken ice, reflections and Terra Nova, January 7th 1911
Ref.109

The Terra Nova and a berg at ice-foot, January 16th 1911
Ref.135

Penguins and a berg at Cape Royds, February 13th 1911
Ref.172

An Emperor penguin
Ref.A181a

Wave breaking at West Beach, February 28th 1911
Ref.201

At the pumps in a gale in Antarctic ocean, March 1912
Ref.A202a

Erebus and dome cloud from West Beach. 2.30 pm, iced foreground, March 7th 1911
Ref.206

Chris and the gramophone
Ref.A209

Captain Scott and group taken on return of Southern Party, April 13th 1911
Ref.250

Captain Scott, April 13th 1911
Ref.251

The Castle Berg with dog sledge, September 17th 1911
Ref.329

Huge ice bastions of the Castle Berg (Clissold), September 17th 1911
Ref.331

Under the lee of the Castle Berg, September 17th 1911
Ref.334

Captain Scott in his den, October 7th 1911
Ref.341

The pressure ridges of the ice crack from the Barne Glacier to inaccessible looking to Cape Royds (Captain Scott), October 8th 1911
Ref.344

The Matterhorn Berg profile with Erebus, October 8th 1911
Ref.348

The Tenements bunks in hut. Lieutenant Bowers, Mr. Cherry Garrard, Captain Oates, Mr. Meares and Dr. Atkinson, October 9th 1911
Ref.352

Adelie penguins track and sledge track crossing, December 8th 1911
Ref.447

Untitled
Ref.506